Sermon Discussion Guide

This message looks at Paul's advice to his young apprentice Timothy concerning God's Word! God's truth brings direction to a person's life and ministry if they will follow it! In order to follow God's truth a person must first know the truth, then believe the truth, and finally let the truth of God's salvation save them through Jesus! God is the source of truth and His truth is extremely practical! Paul gives six practical applications for living our lives and then gives 5 applications for ministry!
