

Truth is Freedom
November 29, 2020
Sermon Discussion Guide

This message looks at Paul's letter to the Philippians by using the first 6 verses as a guide. In these verses we discover four truths that can help us find real freedom in life! Paul introduces himself as a servant, (slave) of The Lord Jesus Christ and from this we find that being a servant of God brings great freedom to an individual. We then look at how Paul tells us God's plan for our lives was conceived by God, will be carried by God, and will be completed by God. Each of these things, if understood and trusted in, can bring amazing freedom for a person. Other passages from letters Paul wrote, and from other parts of the book of Philippians are used to showcase why truth is freedom.
